BLAIR COUNTY CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILIES

Blair County Children, Youth, and Families (CYF) work to ensure the safety and well-being of children throughout our community. Landlords and property managers can play an important role in protecting children. If you ever suspect child abuse or neglect, it's your legal and moral responsibility to report it immediately. Reports can be made confidentially through ChildLine at 1-800-932-0313, available 24/7.

Landlords may be in a unique position to notice warning signs of abuse or neglect, such as:

- Children who appear consistently dirty, hungry, or unsupervised
- Signs of injury or bruising that are unexplained or inconsistent with the explanation given
- Extreme fearfulness or withdrawal around adults
- Unsafe or unsanitary living conditions, such as lack of heat, electricity, food, or sleeping arrangements for children
- Frequent loud arguments, screaming, or signs of violence coming from the unit

In addition to investigating concerns, CYF also provides support for families in crisis. They may have supplies such as diapers, wipes, pack 'n plays, and other essential items and often assist families experiencing homelessness by helping with temporary hotel stays or other emergency needs.
